Description :

PDF-85269 | Adam Nossiter spent part of his youth in France.

During those years, in the mid-1960s, President de Gaulle forged the myth that France bravely resisted the German occupiers of World War II and that the nation was innocent in the crimes of the Holocaust. Collaboration with Germany and the deportations of Jews were subjects not dwelt on -- not until many years later. THE ALGERIA HOTEL is Nossiter's ... The Algeria Hotel: France, Memory, and the Second World War
