Description :

PDF-96c01 | The Atlantic Ocean, transcending national boundaries as it does, has long been seen as a pivotal site for understanding the way in which local and regional economies and cultural frameworks gradually became integrated into a global system during the early modern era. A key concept that has brought new insight to the study of transnationalism is that of brokerage. Brokers are people who link up dif... Brokers of Change: Atlantic Commerce and Cultures in Pre-Colonial Western Africa (Proceedings of the British Academy)
