Description :

PDF-c228d | The scene of two devastating civil wars since 1989, Liberia had widely been considered a failed state until the international professional Ellen Johnson Sirleaf was democratically elected president in 2005. This book investigates the political economy of civil war and democratic peace, arguing that the civil wars did not represent state decay, but exhibited dynamics characteristic of state formati... Civil War and State Formation: The Political Economy of War and Peace in Liberia (Micropolitics of Violence)
