Description :

PDF-1031c | This collection of essays, a "people's history", is a depiction of Zambia under colonial rule. The essays, written by former colleagues of Samuel Chipunga, evoke the period of British rule. Although the experience of colonialism was shared by other African countries, Zambia was in many ways unique. A consideration of ethnic stereotypes leads to an examination of labour relations; the accumulation ... Guardians in Their Time: Experience of Zambians Under Colonial Rule, 1890-1964
