Description :

PDF-83c86 | On 26 January 1885, a Sudanese Islamic revolutionary army entered Khartoum. The slaughter continued from dawn until noon and involved the beheading of British officer General Charles Gordon. This event has often been explored in literature yet the focus has always been on General Gordon and the colonial viewpoint. This new biography recognises for the first time the Mahdi's role as the charismatic... The Mahdi of Sudan and the Death of General Gordon
