Description :

PDF-8c26e | For the first time in their history, Eritreans were engaged, as a sovereign people, in the making of the basic document by which they would be governed. Regarded by Eritreans as the culmination of their legitimate struggle for national self determination, the Constitution became an integral part of this continuous and crucial struggle. Written by a scholar and practitioner who led the process of... The Making of the Eritrean Constitution: The Dialectic of Process and Substance
