Description :

PDF-7035b | This is a unique group of previously unpublished letters which are held in manuscript form by the British Library, the Library of the University of Illinois, Chicago, and the Public Record Office, London. The letters were written by black settlers who had migrated from North America to Sierra Leone. They record an attempt by self-liberated ex-slaves to obtain political and land rights, which they ... Our Children Free & Happy: Letters from Black Settlers in Africa in the 1790s (Early Black Writers)
