Description :

PDF-f99f2 | In 1964 Kenneth Kaunda and his United National Independence Party (UNIP) government established the nation of Zambia in the former British colony of Northern Rhodesia. In parallel with many other newly independent countries in Africa this process of decolonisation created a wave of optimism regarding humanity's capacity to overcome oppression and poverty. Yet, as this study shows, in Zambia as in ... Rethinking African Politics: A History of Opposition in Zambia (Empires and the Making of the Modern World, 1650-2000)
